to them. Please see Govt-Prov. No. G-4105-46-G-M-109-09-4 dt. 5-2-1910. By a subsequent G.O. (No. J-1671-511-Pol-66-12-2 dated the 27th Novr-1912) the grant of this concession is permitted only if the services of the officers concerned can be spared without involving extra cost to Govt + without detriment to Govt work.

2- These orders apply to short periods of absence of volunteers, once or twice a year for purposes of training. There do not appear to be any specifically rules providing for cases of volunteers in Govt employ proceeding for active service. The practice in British India may be ascertained by a reference to the Residency, if it is deemed desirable to [illegible] consider the question of the facilities that may be granted in such cases.

direct. If any of our men are wanted application should be made through the Residency.

18. In many departments the Govt of India cancelled the leave of many European officers after the war began and sent them back from England to India. It is not at all clear that they are wanted for Volunteers from India going to the front.

19. As our European officers are few, no general rule need be laid down. Each case may be dealt with on its own merits. Even the grant of the full concessions which the Govt of India are giving will not entail much additional expense to Mysore. But whether any additional expense whatever should be incurred may be decided after we know the views of the Residency & the Govt of India in the matter.

26/11

20. We have no authoritative information as to how the services of the Volunteers will be employed. But from the enclosure to Mr O'Doherty's letter (Flag D) it may be gathered that they may be required either to

(i) Volunteer for active service in Europe or

(ii) offer to replace regulars who are called to the front.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

GPB—25,000—2-11-14

21. The Comptroller surmises that Case 1 of the 1st Kind are likely to be few, and therefor proposes that Each Case may be dealt with on its merits. But Cases of the 2° Kind are bound to be rather numerous and it is worth Considering whether general orders may not be passed. Already two Concrete instances (both Press Employees, please see linked file) have been reported.

22 Instead of presuming one way or the other it is suggested that we may obtain authentic information through the Residency about

(a) the exact Conditions of the Service for which our Govt Servants who are Volunteers may be Called out.

(b) the names, appointments held, & other particulars of such Volunteer Govt Servants.

23. In the case of (a) we might enquire whether it will be service abroad, or here - to replace Regulars.

24. On receipt of this inform we shall be in a pos better position to decide whether general orders are called for or it is enough to Consider Cases as they arise individually.

(18) Malabar Volunteer Rifles.
(19) Southern Provinces Mounted Rifles.

2. The grant of pay, allowances, etc., to the members of the Volunteer Units thus called out will be governed by the provisions of paragraph 140, Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, and will have effect from the date they are actually called out for military service.

3. I am, however, to add that the allowances referred to in paragraph 140 (i) and (v), Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, will be admissible to the Volunteers called out once only during the war and regardless of the number of times the services of an individual may be requisitioned, and that pay under paragraph 140 (ii) and (iii), will be admissible only for the periods such Volunteers actually perform military duty.

4. Orders will be issued separately as to the incidence of the extra expenditure involved.

I am,

SIR,

In continuation of my telegram No. 1568-78, dated the 27th September 1914, on the subject of volunteering by Government servants, I am directed to state that the Secretary of State has since authorised the grant to officers while employed of furlough pay, plus the pay and allowances of army rank. Absence at the front will not be regarded as an interruption of duty for leave already earned, and it will count for pension but not for leave. If the officer in question was holding an appointment on incremental pay, the period spent on military duty may count towards increments. Any Government servant permitted to volunteer will have the right on his return to civil duty, to resume the appointment which he was previously holding or an appointment of the same class.

SUBJECT.

Kindly obtain for the Bureau detailed information as to who are the volunteers in State service that are likely to be called out on military service, whether they will be required to go abroad or serve here, and what the conditions of that service are. These particulars are necessary to enable the Bureau to decide and if so, what whether any special treatment is to be afforded in Bureau cases.

To

The Dewan of Mysore.

Dated Bangalore, 8th February 1915.

Sir,

With reference to Mr. Narasinga Rao's letter No. 545, dated the 8th December 1914, I am directed to forward herewith (a) a list of men in the Durbar's employ who were called out when a portion of the Bangalore Rifle Volunteers was embodied for Military duty; and (b) a nominal roll of two men in the Durbar's employ who have proceeded on active service.

2. The men in the list (a) were called out solely for garrison duty; they were not liable to leave the District of Bangalore; but were required to perform any duties for which they were detailed under the orders of the G. O. C., Bangalore Brigade. While thus embodied, the Voluteers received the same pay as regular British Troops, less 'proficiency pay'. The last of these Volunteers were demobilised on the 17th ultimo and, so far as can be foreseen at present, there is no probability of their being again mobilised.

3. The two men who have proceeded on active service are performing the same duties as regular British Troops and receiving similar emoluments. The Commandant states that they were under the impression that they would be treated as on furlough for the period of their absence, and would receive at least half their regular pay from the Durbar. The Commandant expresses a hope that the cases of these two men will receive favourable consideration from the Durbar. It is not at present anticipated that any other members of the Bangalore Rifle Volunteers will proceed on active service.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

First Assistant Resident.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness

the Maharaja of Mysore.

Order No. Q 12889-938 / Fur 141-14-1136

Dated Bangalore, the 20th May 1915.

A few officers of Government enrolled as volunteers having been ordered for active service, it has become necessary to decide how the period of absence from duty in their case should be regulated and what allowances should be paid to them during such period. After giving the subject careful consideration, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to order as follows:--

A Government servant permitted to volunteer for active service will be given furlough pay, plus the pay and allowances of Army rank. Absence at the front will not be regarded as an interruption of duty for leave already earned, and will count for pension but not for leave. If the officer in question was holding an appointment on incremental pay, the period spent on Military duty will count towards increments. On return to Civil duty such an officer will have the right to resume the appointment which he was previously holding or an appointment of the same class and carrying not less pay.
